

Skipping - Summer, 1988 (I think)

A letter had been sent to the school by the COOP. It offered the school lots of skipping ropes provided the school took part in a sponsored skip. I applied for these and Harry Carlton pupils participated in huge numbers. I discovered that a local man called Patrick Holden had recently had a heart and lungs transplant and I managed to get him to come into the school and receive the money that we raised.

