

Terry Slaney 1947 - 96

Terry Slaney was the Head of Art and Year 9 at Harry Carlton from 1971 until his untimely death in 1996. Any tribute to Harry Carlton has to include the name of Terry Slaney. His wit, humour, kindness and charisma made him a legend at the school

The impact that Terry had on others could be seen at his funeral on the 29th February 1996, when people were standing paying their last respects in the grounds surrounding Saint Mary's Church because it was completely impossible for them to get into the already 'packed' church.
